LATIN AMERICA: NEWSLETTERS IN ENGLISH

Compiled by Oscar E. Delepiani

Newsletters are good sources for up-to-date information about Latin America. Some provide general coverage of Latin American issues, focusing on current events, politics and economics. Others report on specialized topics and are often published by representative organizations. The titles included in this guide are only a selection of the English language newsletters found in the Benson Latin American Collection; others may be located through the Online Catalog (UTCAT) by using subject headings such as Latin America—Politics and government—Periodicals and Latin America—Economic Conditions—Periodicals.

The most recent issues of newsletters which are starred(*) are located in the Periodicals Reading Area, shelved alphabetically under their titles, while older issues are in the Benson Collection stacks under their classification numbers. Unstarred newsletters are located in the stacks.
